

‘Prevent and Safeguarding – What you need to know’ Resources

Prevent Key Contacts:

- if you are worried someone is being radicalised you can call the national police Prevent line on 0800 011 3764
- ACT Early | Prevent radicalisation https://actearly.uk/
- Local authority and local Police webpages for local Prevent leads

For more information

- Get help if you’re worried about someone being radicalized: Get help for radicalization concerns
 - If you’re concerned about a young person, more advice about making a referral is available here: Making a referral to prevent – GOV.UK
 - Report online material: Report online material promoting terrorism or extremism – GOV.UK
 - Online Prevent Training: Prevent duty training: Learn how to support people susceptible to radicalisation | Prevent duty training
- Educate against Hate: Educate Against Hate - Prevent Radicalisation & Extremism

Prevent duty animation: Working together to stop radicalisation (on YouTube)

Prevent duty animation - public sector staff working together to stop radicalisation

Andy Williams

Prevent Advisor for the South West

Prevent Local Delivery and Communities

Prevent Directorate, Homeland Security Group

Home Office

E: Andrew.williams1@homeoffice.gov.uk